

Comment - Internet translation:

When we pray; † In the name of the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, then if God's will is what we have asked for, it will happen.

Internet translation is constantly changing to the wrong translation. It is best if everyone prays as it has been written here: in e.g. Esperanto, Latin, English or German so far, then you will not have any falsified prayers.

Esperanto, Latin, German and English cannot be translated correctly by computer, it will then be translated incorrectly and not according to God's will. The computer looks for words according to its will, what has been input into it.

Pray and sacrifice beforehand before you copy, because it took us many days and printed many hundreds of pages until we had written it correctly.

The computer kept inputting the wrong words.

Now it is correct: German, Latin, Esperanto and English.

We managed this with God's Holy Will and His grace.

As we continue to write, we receive new words from the Savior to strengthen us.

We cannot cope with this all at once.

The Savior said that prayer is better now.

Pray for us too, that we can continue to write what the Savior gives us for the salvation of souls.
