

Short Description of an Experience That Will Also Gladden Your Heart

I, Bernhard, watched the film "Bernadette of Lourdes" (2000) together with Julijana Ebert. We both liked the film very much.

When Bernadette was lying seriously ill in her sickbed in the second part of the film and the sisters around her were praying for her, I spoke in my heart to the Saviour:

"Dear Saviour, who will pray for me when I am lying on my deathbed?"

At that time, I thought that there would hardly be a person who would be with me in my hour of death and pray for me.

Hardly had I spoken this question in my heart when I already received the answer:

"The whole of Heaven will pray for you."

At that very moment, I began to weep so much with joy that I could hardly comprehend it. I was deeply touched in my heart and completely filled with love.

Deo sanctae Trinitati gratias.

Therefore, dear faithful, always invite the saints in Heaven and also the poor souls to pray with you whenever you pray. Ask them already now, especially in your hour of death, to pray for you and also for your family.

They will not forget you in your hour of death, they will not leave you alone, and they will pray for you. In this you may trust in the Almighty Holy Triune God.

Deidesheim, 25 January 2026

Bernhard Koppenhagen

(The text was linguistically revised by a dear Christian.)